

At BDT our people is the main resource for success. And as a business partner we give them in return a work environment in which they can develop professional and personally achieving their life goals.

/// Our main Human Resources Principles are:

- Equal Opportunity for all
- Non discrimination policies
- Freely chosen employment
- Zero tolerance policies for harassment, abuse and business ethics.
- Prohibitions on child labor
- Fair compensation, wages and benefits
- Respect for working hours and rest days
- Empowering employees for career advancement and development
- Freedom of association, providing means for employees to freely express their concerns and opinions without fear.

/// Recruitment Principles

We conduct our Recruitment & Selection processes in compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

We will only request personal information related with the job offered and in connection with a lawful background check.

We will never ask people to pay any hiring fees.

Each location is responsible of their job vacancies and will always comply with the local legal requirements and BDT Code of Conduct.

Ernesto Weber

General Director BDT México